Dear Mr Donovan,

Thank you for your faxed letters of 2nd, 3rd and 4th June.

It is not the practice of my company to comment on its activities on behalf of its clients nor, indeed, on whether it has acted on behalf of a particular client. I am, therefore, not prepared to comment on the allegations and questions in your letter, except that I can say that, so far as I am aware, none of Hakluyt's work has related in anyway to you, your family or your former business.

Yours sincerely,
Christopher James.
